

Remembrances read at “10 Years After 9/11: A Gathering of Commemoration” held on 8 September 2011

PRAYER BY FATHER PETER WILSON

(Introduction to Remembrances – read by Kat Callo)

We gather together to commemorate the people from every nation, every background, every walk of life who have died in acts of violence that resulted from ignorance, fear and prejudice. We offer compassion and comfort to their families. After each remembrance is read out, we invite everyone gathered here to join in by saying “We remember them.”

(Remembrance 1 - read by Alex Clarke)

We remember the people lost on September 11, 2001 in New York City, Washington, DC and near Shanksville, Pennsylvania -- 2,976 people from more than 90 countries, people of every race and every creed.

All: *We remember them.

(Remembrance 2 – read by Sehr Sarwar)

We remember 77 people killed in the bombing in Oslo and the shooting on Utøya Island in Norway on July 22, 2011.

We remember 52 people lost in the London bombings on July 7, 2005.

We remember 270 people who died on December 21, 1988, including 35 study abroad students from Syracuse University, when Pan Am Flight 103 was bombed over Lockerbie, Scotland.

All: *We remember them.

PRAYER BY IMAM DR ABDULJALIL SAJID
